THE PROCESS

Four steps, no mystery.

Each engagement is shaped by the role, the market, and the people who will work alongside the hire.

01 We learn your business

Your company, your leadership culture, and what success in this role actually looks like. We align on the mandate before approaching anyone.

02 We go to the market, quietly

We map the relevant companies and talent pools, then approach high performers — looking or not — with discretion.

03 We hand you a shortlist, not a pile

Three or four finalists, assessed on track record, trajectory, role fit and motivation — with the context to evaluate them properly.

04 We stay in it to the close

We coordinate interviews, carry feedback both ways, and support the offer through to acceptance and the start of the transition.

WHERE IT FITS

When the hire has to be right.

Roles

C-suite and regional leadership, practice leaders, specialist technical roles, and senior business development.

Discretion

Exclusive engagement, confidential outreach, and no approach made without an agreed mandate.

Attention

A limited number of searches at a time, so yours is run by someone senior rather than delegated down.

Depth

Twenty-five years in insurance and nothing else. No ramp-up on your time.
